

Congressman Mike Thompson's Student Leadership Council

Please submit completed forms to thompson.studentleaders@mail.house.gov by September 25, 2020

Congressman Mike Thompson's Student Leadership Council is open to high school students in California's 5th Congressional District. The council will meet virtually on a weekly basis every Wednesday evening during the Fall semester, and on an as-needed basis during the Spring semester. The Fall semester will include activities and guest speakers on the topics of federal, state and local government, the role of nonprofits, how to be a leader, and deep dives into local issues that impact our community. During the Spring semester, students will plan and implement a virtual town hall focusing on the topic of their choice. Regular attendance and active participation is expected of all participants.
